Tenby, Carmarthen Bay

Tenby is surrounded by 3 superb blue flag beaches and overlooks two great sandy bays. This medieval walled town is both picturesque and fascinating with a jumble of interesting narrow streets.

The 2* Giltar Hotel overlooks the South Beach and has an attractive sea view air conditioned dining room. All bedrooms are en suite and have tea/coffee making facilities, TV and all are served by a lift. There is an extensive programme of entertainment and activities.

The 3* Park Hotel offers breathtaking views across the North Bay of Tenby. Enjoy the tranquility of North Cliff, the lawns, pool and patio areas and rambling cliff path, leading down to its own beach. Take an aperitif in the warm, friendly lounge or bars and dancing is a regular feature at the hotel. Great care is taken to provide varied and quality cuisine using fresh produce whenever possible. The bedrooms compliment the atmosphere with TV, telephone, hairdryer and tea/coffee making facilities.

Excursions included at no extra cost:

May 1. Pembroke & St Govens Head 2. Martin's Haven with possible boat trips to the bird sanctuary of Skomer Island.

October 1. Laugharne (Pendine Sands) returning via Saundersfoot

Tenby North Beach

Pembrokeshire Coast & Tenby

This picturesque corner of Wales, offers wonderful beaches, stunning coastal scenery and attractive villages. The Pembrokeshire Coast National Park covers a third of the county including all the coastal areas and the Preseli Hills. These landscapes are special and, thanks to their National Park protected status, have remained undeveloped.

Nestling in rich woodland, high above Fishguard Harbour, overlooking some of the most spectacular coastline in Wales, is the 3* Fishguard Bay Hotel. Steeped in history and recently refurbished, this splendid Victorian hotel offers a unique base to enjoy the cultural heritage of Pembrokeshire. A lift serves most areas of the hotel and bedrooms are en suite with TV, hairdryer and tea/coffee making facilities. There is a bar and entertainment which is generally provided once a week.

Itinerary

- Monday Travel to Wales via Shrewsbury.
- Tuesday Meet the guide for a tour of some of the little craft centres that are such a feature of this area. The tour will also include the remarkable little "city" of St Davids with its impressive Cathedral.
- Wednesday An afternoon excursion to enjoy more of the lovely coastline, the Cenarth Falls and the historic town of Newcastle Emlyn.
- Thursday A day visiting Tenby and a boat trip to Caldey Island, inhabited for centuries by Cistercian Monks. The monastery can be visited as well as the little village on the island.
- Friday Homeward journey via Ross-on-Wye.

Carmarthen's Coast & Countryside

NEW for 2010

Carmarthenshire's countryside is pure and simple; a coastline that has changed little since the days it inspired Dylan Thomas. However, there is much more to this charming, surprising part of Wales than initially meets the eye.

Llanelli is steeped in history and tradition and the 3* Diplomat Hotel offers a rare combination of charm and character. Situated in its own grounds, creating an atmosphere of charm and sophistication this fine hotel is proud of its reputation. Guests may use the hotel's health club with pool, steam room and sauna. There is a lift to the en suite bedrooms and all have TV, telephone, hairdryer and tea/coffee making facilities.

Itinerary

- Monday Enjoy the scenic journey to Llanelli via the Brecon Beacons National Park.
- Tuesday A day to enjoy the vibrant city of Swansea known as Wales' Waterfront City, with its unique position on the edge of a 5 mile sandy beach. A few minutes away lies the picturesque seaside resort of Mumbles, with its Victorian pier, traditional ice-cream parlours and first-class restaurants. Browse Mumbles' many specialty shops and boutiques, which sell everything from local pottery to Welsh lovespoons.
- Wednesday Visit the National Botanic Garden of Wales near Carmarthen (admission NOT included) or spend time in Carmarthen itself.
- Thursday A day on the remote Gower Peninsula, with its limestone cliffs, lovely bays and extensive stretches of golden sand.
- Friday Return home to Derbyshire.
